Professionalism

- ❖ We respect and treat each client and colleague as unique individuals with free will. We serve those in our care with honesty and compassion, with the highest regard for their well-being and safety.
- ❖ We treat all clients with equal respect, regardless of their origin, race, religion, gender or sexual preference.
- ❖ We do not offer readings connected to Religion, Medical, Financial Investment or any luck based on activities such as gambling/lottery/bets of sport games and information on how or when the Death of a person.
- ❖ We provide services within the scope and training of our competence. We refer clients to other appropriate professionals when necessary and respect treatments already in progress.
- ❖ We provide information about our experience, qualifications and certifications.
- ❖ We are dedicated to providing services from a clear and unimpaired state.
- ❖ We will not provide our services to those who have not given us consent, as it violates free will. Spiritual work may not be effective on any client who has not fully embraced the option of regaining wellbeing and clarity.
- ❖ We will not preach my religion to client(s) and will not criticize client(s) religion or faith.
- ❖ We will not preach our practices fanatically, but share them with those who genuinely want the service(s) we provide.
- ❖ We are committed to continuously working on our own growth, resulting in a high level of expertise and responsibility.
- ❖ We offer an environment, an appearance and a behavior that reflects professionalism and shows respect to our clients.
- ❖ We serve as role models and representatives by preserving the ethical and spiritual components of Metaphysics and Holistic Healing.

Client Relationships

- ❖ Each of us care for the best interest and satisfaction of our clients by providing advance information on fees, content and length of services, cancellations/deposit policies and cost of any additional service option.
- ❖ We maintain open and honest communication with clients at all times and respect client confidentiality.
- ❖ Client's name and information shared or discussed will not be review or mention to any third party, unless otherwise requested by the client(s) or required by court of law.
- ❖ We will not mislead a client into thinking we can guarantee a cure or predict and conclude a guaranteed outcome.
- ❖ We maintain clear and professional (non-sexual) boundaries with our clients at all times.

Service Related

- ❖ We market ourselves (attract clients) through honest methods and promotional activities, coming from a place of authenticity.
- ❖ Our products available for purchase present those items in a non-invasive way.

Reading, Counseling/Therapy Session

- ❖ We will honestly report and do our best to provide helpful interpretations of any cards/reading/prediction may come up regardless good or ill.
- ❖ We provide information-insights to our clients based on our abilities with the focus of empowering them.
- ❖ We will respect the client(s) right to refuse or terminate their reading/counseling session at any time during the session, regardless of prior consent.
- ❖ We respect that the clients are ultimately determining the choices they make.

Holistic/Energy Healing

- ❖ We seek clients in promoting health and wellness, not fears or insecurities.
- ❖ We establish an awareness and respect for the client's current physical, emotional, mental and spiritual states of being.
- ❖ We affirm all treatments and healing works are for therapeutic purposes and are non-sexual.
- ❖ We believe in good conscience that no metaphysician, or alternative, can guarantee a cure for any illness, nor make any prediction that is set in stone.

Courses/Learning

- ❖ We have respect for the teacher/student relationship and do not misuse that trust and position of power for personal gain.
- ❖ We recognize that all consultants/practitioners have the rights and obligations, and we will always respect and honor them.
